

Built in 1907
Peter and Mary Schmit

The Schmits retired from farming and built this home. Peter served as the president of the Central Mutual Hail and Cyclone Insurance Company.

House Style: Colonial Revival

Code Word: Insurance

#1

617 S. State Street

Built in 1881
John Tintinger

May have been Appleton's first duplex. Houses were joined together along a common back wall. Buildings separated in 1913 to generate better rents.

House Style: Italianate

Code Word: Duplex

#2

414-416 S. State St.

Built in 1897
Matthew and Anna
Rodermund

Several other houses in the historic district look like this one—it was a popular style. Bay windows, towers and triangular gables are classic elements of this style.

House Style: Queen Anne

Code Word: Gables

3

602 Walnut St.

Built in 1921
Arthur and Mabel Liese

Arthur Liese worked as an agent for the CM & St. Paul Railway. The exposed rafter ends, and low gabled dormers are typical of this house style.

House Style: American Four-square

Code Word: Railway

#4

518 S. Walnut St.

Built in 1870
John and Mary Whorton

After years in the lumber business, John helped organize the Fox River Paper Company in 1882. News was made when a runaway team of horses cleared the iron fence with their wagon and came up against the house.

House Style: Italian Villa

Code Word: Horses

5

315 W. Prospect

Built in 1913
Paul Hackbert

Mr. Hackbert was a C&NW Railway agent. Residents have reported the spirit of a former owner coming up the front steps checking for mail and going in for lunch.

House Style: Craftsman
Bungalow

Code Word: Mail

6

405 W. Prospect